Suspect an overdose? Call 911
New York’s Good Samaritan Law protects you and saves lives.

Know the warning signs:
- Small, constricted ‘pinpoint pupils’
- Falling asleep or loss of consciousness
- Choking or gurgling sounds
- Limp body
- Shallow breathing or no breathing
- Pale, blue, or cold skin

Don’t wait. Call 911. Save a life.
Learn more about The Good Samaritan Law, Naloxone and more.

CombatAddiction.ny.gov